Welcome to the Windsor Men's Club Tournament this Sunday. Today's event is one of the Clubs most popular events. This tournament allows members to play with their friends who are not members of the club. It's also a way to expose the club to non-members; hopefully expand the club's membership. Today's event will start off with a BBQ, just outside the pro shop. After lunch, the shotgun start will get today's golf under way. Please play with a pace that will allow you to keep up with the group ahead of you. Turn in scorecards at the end of the round. Scores and tournament results will be posted on the Windsor Men's Club Website. This should happen within a couple of days. Members who earn payouts will have it placed in their Pro Shop account. Guests who received payouts can get them through their member. Guests will received gift cards redeemable in the pro shop. Men's Club President Ken Crownover and the Board of Directors hope you enjoy today's event and encourages guests to sign up as member. Men's Club applications are on the Website.

RED, WHITE & BLUE TOURNAMENT

A new tournament format for Men's Club as well a weather forecast of heavy rains greeted members on a cloudy Sunday morning on February 22, 2010. 34, two-man teams played this event in three flights. The second flight had the lowest-round of the day with Chris Hauth and Anthony Sadorra shooting a lights-out 58. The usually strong team of Chuck McGill and Gary Emerson were four shots back with a nice 62. In third place was Brent Kapple and Dylan Marzullo, who needed a tie-breaker to beat Stephen Brown and Craig Wiseman.

Jessie Almaras and Riley Joseph King had a 61 to lead the way in the first flight. Jessie and Riley were two shots better than the Two-Man Best Ball winners of DJ Myers and Ron Myers. Club Champion DJ Myers has been showing he is a tough player on his own or with a partner. DJ and Ron, however needed, a tie-breaker to edge out the team of Ken Rhodes and Gary Scenti who also shot a 63. Fourth place in the fight went to Darrel Moore and Bob Lavery with a 64.

The third flight was the closet of the flights with two shots separating the four money winning teams. Gary Vought and Dallas Moore won the third flight with a 61, using the tie breaker to overcome the hottest pairing in the club. Troy Collier and Victor Hanely shot a wild 27 on the front side for a second place finish.

Jon Steward and Tom Osipowich had a 62. Dan Exelby and his partner Joe Hemstock had a well-played 63.

Second flight winners:
Chris Hauth and
Anthony Sadorra

Third flight winners:
Gary Vought and Dallas Moore.
NICE PLAYING GUYS!

ABCD BLIND -DRAW SCRAMBLE

The first tournament of the year has traditionally been a four-man scramble and 2010 was no exception. Another traditional aspect of this tournament has been that a team with Orin Burgess as the "A" player was either a winner or placed in the money. Yes, once again, an Orin Burgess team was in the money. Orin's team of Robert Brown, Dave Weller and Jeff Rosener came in fifth place.

The first place team posted a 59, led by Tony Rossi. Tony's team had a strong supporting cast with Anthony Sadorra, Craig Larsen and Victor Hanely.

The second place team had a Mayacma feel with Mike Hatfield and Jim Boito. Along with Mike and Jim, teammates John Torres and Ron Friedland shot very good twelve under 60.

The third place team had Chris James as the "A" player, with Scott Partridge, Randy McDaniel and Dean Williams. A 61 was good for third place. It was Dean's first tournament in over a year, so it was good to see Dean back playing in a tournament.

Fourth and fifth place were determined by a tie breaker with fourth going to the team of Ken Crowover, Don Miskin, James Lee and Henri Yates. Their 62 beat out the aforementioned, Orin Burgess team. The sixth payout spot went to the team of Trinidad Macias, Robert Sheets, Dan McBerty and Donald Gardina. This fore-some shot a nice 63. They needed the tie breaker to edge out two other teams that also had a 63.

A total of fifteen teams played in this event. A total of $860 was payout to the six placing teams. Plus another forty dollars went to the closest to the hole winners.

The Windsor Men's Club Board of Directors is committed to giving the club members the best payouts possible. Your participation in tournaments is important, so the Board can keep the payouts at a high-level.
