WMC 2019 CLUB CHAMPIONS:

GROSS CHAMP: Adam Lewis..36hole match-play battle vs.OscarHeath.

Oscar was seen on the range the day after the qualifier. His twerking still needs some. TopDogs in the club have been beaten to a pulp again by our perrenial ClubChamp, AdamLewis.

Adam hangs them out to dry with a 11up with 10 to go victory. Adam punches a 67 for his first 18holes, then limps in with a course record of '61' from the black tees. Look for his designer 'tee' shirts in the clubhouse soon bearing his motto 'just play better'. There's got to be some genetically modified talent as Adam has a job, married/father of 2boys and is rarely seen working on his game. He has not forgotten his roots here at WGC. An 'all-star' in the cart barn at an early age, junior golf team, Windsor Hi and SRJC Golf teams, pro tour of some kind. Last few years has served as the WMC tournament director. Loves to play in SWEEPS which is often rewarded with a weekly envelope of cash. After a round he can tip back a cold one on the terrace, goes into a 'stand up' as he rips the golf talent of fellow members. Completely serious but always with a smile. He instructed the newsletter staff to 'rub it in' as games need to improve cuz he's not letting down. he again represents us well as Club Champ.

FLITE ONE CHAMP: Ken 'rdkill' Rhodes

he's an instigator, always stirring the pot.. He's a working stiff's stiff.This epic match-up festering for years out on the fairways ended quietly on the 14th hole, at least until next year.. AlexPerez and Ken were seen commenting on each others swing at the range before the match. Alex claimed fatigue as he participated in the nite golf event the nite before. Ken lends his talents around the course. He sharpens the mower blades, claims to terminate equipement oil leaks, a sometimes caddy for Jason, pulls golf carts out of the creeks and just loves his collector car owning friends. He's never short of cash if he loses a bet out here now and then. Last of the silky smooth swingers for he likens his game to FredCouples and pretty much looks like him too. This one had to end with a kiss and a hug as these two have a rep for just getting things done. Congrats.

FLITE TWO CHAMP: Randall Pendrich...marches these fairways constantly. A push carter, solar protected garb with a davehoward-like- on-going sweat. The outback hat represents his style of game, ' tee it high, let it fly'. Never responds to a poor shot just hits it again, usually harder. His opponent, KenCrownover is not a push over by any means. Ken saturates himself in golf to keep himself out of the pokey. The match took all of the 18holes as Randall celebrated with a dance on the 18th green with a knock down 12ft putt that left KC bewildered. Only dreamt at being a club champ but with two days of qualifying and a knock down drag out with the almighty KC dreams can become reality at any age.Have a feeling this won't be the last we'll see of the RandallPendrich dream.

SANTA ROSA CITY GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP: IN MEMORY OF RENE PURUGGANAN
Bennett Valley GC October 26th & 27th, 2019...entry deadline Oct 16.

August 10 –11: 2-day Set-up for The Club Championship...stroke play grinder-this is your time.

Ok membership, no more excuses. You've had all year, all summer with help from midweek SWEEPS to get it together. Your 'yips' are waning, the call of 'I never slice' actually may have some truth to it. Two day stroke play with top two from each flite going directly to match play plus two chosen for the gross championship. The tourney format was tweaked in hopes to improve participation, one of our signature venues...Well, its not like back in the day when Tiger was draining them from everywhere...22 players, 2 flites. Is it the two days? The post qualifier match play? Sandbagger frustrations? Or the wife is holding you to your promise of ? The subject will be topic at the 'open meeting' in October... again.

Show me someone who doesn't love 2-day qualifiers in August? Twas a revamped format in hopes to get more players and most seemed to like it, but had little affect on drawing more players. Weather was mild. Most have gotten use to the overwatering conditions on the course all summer. Those that showed were ready to be tested. Here's how it went down:

Rdkill vs. The Perez 2019

Flite 1: provided an epic long awaited confrontation between the 'new vs. old ' involving two longtime adversaries; Ken 'rdkill' Rhodes(137) vs. Alex 'prez' Perez(138). Ken has been haunting this golf course since its creation, working on the very tractors that once moved dirt to create it. Alex has improved his game 3fold since joining the circus back at the turn of the century. Lot of drama and laughs will be had in this one.

Flite 2 presents us with RandallPendrich vs KenCrownover. RPendrich quietly stalks the course 3 or 4 times a week, getting better with every shot as he out tiebreaks a flaying CLarsen on the back nine Sunday with a 138.KenCrownover who already plays too much golf but somehow finds time to play even more bested the 2nd flite by 5 strokes with a 133. An interesting match-up indeed. Gross flite performers: OscarHeath (gross138,net132) fronted others in this flite by 5 strokes. Oscar's performance game gave him the nod, for better or worse, to challenge the perennial designated Champ, AdamLewis, playing as a +3 giving 3strokes back to the field (137gross)...Let the road to the Championship begin. Match play opponents will collect in order - $180 and $140

September 8th: 2020 NCGA Zone Qualifier:
4person teams - 2best ball - turns into feel good story of the year.

Always a club fave, brings out gangs of Besties to challenge the others Homies that walk these fairways together like family. After all the motivational rhetoric amongst foresomes, signing the team up early for intimidation protocol, the manipulated handicaps scenarios in hopes to secure a roadtrip for the group. We had 4 lost dogs that signed up as singles looking for just a good time, GEmerson and DWeller lead dogs hamboning it up wanting to play and with no connections (except members of the WMC), no expectations.

(For affect, will refer to this group as stray dogs) Ole GaryEmerson, the big wolf hound, that is often blamed for leaving paw imprints on the green in a size 14shoe and a dancing weight of 269. He leads the group by his demeanor. On/off game can kick in anytime .Has a scathing stink eye. DavidWeller, just leaving the puppy stage, still not quite potty trained. Can fill his opponents pants with a plasticbag pick up as he loves to bomb the tee shot and often throws nippers into the green. BernieAlabona, who's been chewing on a lot of slippers at SWEEPS all year, can dig a hole under the fence to escape with a birdie/par with two pops jack anywhere on the course. AbrahamPena, knows the course well as he maintains the very sod that makes all this possible. They pulled away on the back 9 by 6 strokes with a 56. Do you see how this collection could make a dog catcher weary as well as the rest of the mutts in this tourney....no, I don't ether.

Post tourney discussion at the scorekeepers desk had this group declining the offer for the next stage qualifier. Something about not being able to 'gel' at the next level, NCGA limiting the handicap to 18 strokes. However, DWeller was seen standing up at the following SWEEPS saying, 'hell yea, we're going'. Obviously, thinking the rest of the pack needs obedience training. That's the last that was heard. If these lost dogs don't go, the roadtrip will be handed off to the 2nd place group. Here's the board....read'em and weep....congrats.

September 22: SWEEPS Final...Sunsets on another season of SWEEPS.

SWEEPS is the best. Thanks to RoyPurrugganan, DaveHoward and the KCrownover for the time they put into this menagerie, for they have saved countless golfers from other personal destructive behaviors. Medical research shows that SWEEPS has become the best mid-week decompressing exercise ever. Taking over the longstanding #1, being stuck in a 2hour commute blasting Dirty Deeds Done Dirt Cheap.

A small group gathered at Charlie's with mixologist Kourtney. Tailgating and a celebratory toast to another fun-filled season of the best weekday 'nine' ever. The SWEEPS Final is 18 hole event. A get in line start began at 1030am under a mysteriously beautiful cloudy day. Peeps were fired up as nearly a full page signed up for the skins competition, the full stroke method.

A 'DarkSweeps' group of rogue players will continue to show on Wednesday to squeeze every bit of daylight out of the season. Here are some final highlights: (skins paid $82 each)

Thursday League Makes Finals Then Wimpers in 1st Round Playoff

.....view from Ukiah #1green looking back at clubhouse

by sounds of another patron ordering a hotdog. PatrickSteiner and AdamLewis led the charge and banged their tee shots into the face of the hill WGC pulled off an early win as 3 teams were still out battling when word sifted out that the victory had been had.

Into the playoffs, Coach Crownover struggled for 2weeks to find functional match ups vs. Oakhurst, a CountyClub course located in Clayton-EastBay-near Concord, a course 3times quirrier than Ukiah. Playoffs are a split team format with both courses used. A field trip for a practice round led to anxiety again as practice round players experienced another side hill course, blind shots and tee shots that had flite lines straight into a bank of trees that would expose greens built on top of a pimple. They never recovered from the experience as the travel team got shut out at Oakhurst.. The home team finished with a slight advantage. Frkn country clubbers did us in again.

Thanks to all those who participated and to the Skipper, KenCrownover, who led the team into battle week after week after week.

A lot of anxiety and anticipation swirled thru the players of the WGC ThursdayLeague. Just two percentage points ahead of their northly nemesis, Ukiah GC who have consistently been spoilers especially on their home turf. The last meeting of the regular season had the team enjoying a 90minute ride thru wine country north to arrive at the side of a hill location of Ukiah GC. The rednecks were waiting for the soft bellies of WindsorGC. The winner of this showdown would advance onward to the playoffs. Coach Crownover spent hours mulling over the match ups in hopes to once again advance. That's what he does and he loves it.

UkiahGC has a clubhouse(est 1931) that probably no longer has any original members living. The golf course built on a side of a hill features an uphill first hole that would be perfect for winter sledding.

The tee box is just outside the clubhouse door and often interrupted

July 20: Annual Member-Guest (member-member)...build it and they will come.

BrotherLove Sallee win 2nd Flite

A Member- Guest tournament without a puttinggreen course contest?? We may have to do this again and get it right, most would agree – who doesn't love the incredible image of pinned string to the green shaping holes, sand piles imitating fairway bunkers, palm tree imposters, glorious pastry greeting, full day of reckless golf with your bestie.... no tee prizes for the guest but we did fatten them up with help from the unlimited taco wagon.

Report listed only alias names of the perpetrators as 'Nobs' and 'krash'

An abomination like no other...has commonly been said about our Annual M/G as of late. Back in the days members would fill this tourney up for 2 days of golf and mischief. Nowadays the date gets changed due to weather and scheduling conflicts – tho a 2 week notice given – 2 flites of 11 and a Calloway of 14, totaling 36.

The weather was easy on us as we headed out to our tee's with a rare shotgun start. AlexPerez got comfy with hole #5, draining the 'hole in one insurance fund' by using a 7-iron for his first ACE. The ball was seen caught pinched tween the hole and the pin until a gust of wind wiggled the flag stix and the ball kerplunked in the hole.

Pizza served as we awaited the start of the horserace event being played out on holes 1, 9 and 18. Shortly after the horserace got started a loud commotion was heard from the south side of the clubhouse. A couple members who did not bother to participate in the horserace were overcome by something still under investigation. As their golf cart joyride burst over the garden curb thru the fence and down to the creek. A fire was distinguished before it could spread. No fatalities reported.

Top 3 in the money.
